

College

Published: 18.05.2021.

Translated by machine translator

In SIVA College You can get a first-level vocational higher education. With acquired knowledges You will be competitive in the labour market and You will be able to continue Your studies in second-level vocational higher education programmes in other universities.

First-level professional higher education programmes

How to apply?

To apply for studies for a fee, phone 29466508 or write an e-mail koledza@siva.gov.lv.

Studies at College for persons with disability or anticipated disability are state-funded! Phone 29187093 or write an e-mail ppn@siva.gov.lv.

In order to receive state-funded studies, person with disability or anticipated disability must receive a Professional assessment process. Within the framework of Professional assessment process, SIVA specialists will assess the overall capacity, knowledges, skills and a state of health of person and recommend what profession is most appropriate for this person.

Friendly school for persons with disability

Audiences and the environment of College is especially friendly and tailored for persons with disabilities. In addition to studies, we offer for person to get a social rehabilitation service to improve and strengthen the health of a person, thereby increasing the quality of persons life.

Piesakies profesionālās piemērotības noteikšanai!

Uzdod mums jautājumu par profesionālā piemērotības noteikšanas pakalpojumu!

Who studies at SIVA College?

young people after secondary school;

young people after vocational school;

adults who got secondary education;

adults who has graduated others universities, colleges or high schools, but wants to update their knowledges or change their qualification.

Benefits:

state-funded studies for persons with disabilities;

option to choose the form of studies: full-time or part-time;

audiences and the environment is equipped according to all modern standards. It is fully adapted for persons with special needs.

We offer:

studies in the guidance of high-skilled teachers and specialists in their field;

the ability to use a modern library with the latest teaching materials;

support from career counselor by finding a place for practice and/ or workplace;

support from specialists - doctor, occupational therapist, psychologist, social worker etc.;

procedures for improving or strengthening health;

possibility to engage in a student management in which can defend the interests of students and organise an event;

extensive opportunities for active leisure, for example - a vocal ensemble, a variety of sports training, a swimming pool, a gym, thematic evenings etc.

catering;

accommodation at cozy student hostel.

We cooperate with:

University of Applied Sciences;

Riga Technical University;

University „Turība”;

Latvian University of Life Sciences and Technologies;

Information System Management Institute.

Diploma of College on first level professional higher education allows to continue studies in higher education schools in a speciality that already appropriates to courses 2 or 3. Each applicant's application is evaluated individually and equate the amount of study courses acquired to the continuation of studies in another higher education school.

<https://www.siva.gov.lv/en/college>