

Project “Centralisation of Welfare Sector Information and Communication Technologies” (2018-2021)

Status: Īstenošanā

Published: 10.12.2020.

ERAF

Translated by machine translator

Project “Centralisation of Welfare Sector Information and Communication Technologies” (2018-2021)

The Ministry of Welfare, in cooperation with subordinate institutions, including the National Agency for Social Inclusion, the European Regional Development Fund Operational Programme “Growth and Jobs”, priority axis “ICT accessibility, e-government and services” 2.2.1 specific support objective “Ensuring the growth of public data re-use and effective interaction between public administration and the private sector 2.2.1.1. in the framework of “Building centralised ICT platforms for public administration, streamlining and developing public administration processes”, the “Centralisation of Welfare Sector Information and Communication Technologies” project is being implemented to improve the efficiency of information and communication technologies in the welfare sector and the provision of services.

<https://www.siva.gov.lv/en/projects/project-centralisation-welfare-sector-information-and-communication-technologies-2018-2021>